Council of Europe Secretary General Terry Davis welcomes the lifting of the state of emergency in Georgia

Strasbourg, 16.11.2007 - "I welcome the lifting of the state of emergency in Georgia. The priority now is to create the conditions for genuinely free and fair presidential elections in January. This must include full respect for the freedom of expression and association, as well as the avoidance of any attempts to provoke or intimidate political opponents."

Terry Davis, Secrétaire Général du Conseil de l'Europe, se félicite de la levée de l'état d'urgence en Géorgie

Strasbourg, 16.11.2007 – « Je me réjouis de la levée de l'état d'urgence en Géorgie. La priorité est maintenant de créer les conditions nécessaires à la tenue d'une élection présidentielle véritablement libre et équitable en janvier. Cela n'est possible que dans le respect de la liberté d'expression et d'association, ainsi qu'en l'absence de toute tentative de provocation ou d'intimidation des opposants politiques. »
