Secretary General Terry Davis on the murder of former Socialist town councillor in Spain

Strasbourg, 07.03.2008 – I condemn in the strongest terms the ruthless murder of former town councillor Isaias Carrasco in Spain today.

Mr Carrasco was reportedly killed in the presence of his wife and daughter. The people who carried out this murder are nothing but common criminals. The assassination takes place two days before the general elections in Spain, but I am convinced that the voters will not let themselves be intimidated and influenced by what appears to be a terrorist attack.

I wish to express my sincere condolences to the family of Mr Carrasco and to the Spanish people.
