Strasbourg, 30.07.2008 – "All democrats must be relieved that the Constitutional Court of Turkey has not tried to veto the democratic choice of the Turkish people", said Terry Davis, Council of Europe Secretary General, who went on to say that every institution and all citizens in a democracy have their own roles. Respect for the rights and views of everyone is an essential prerequisite for stability and democratic development.

Décision de la Cour constitutionnelle turque : le Secrétaire général du Conseil de l'Europe Terry Davis fait part de son soulagement

Strasbourg, 30.07.2008 – « C'est un soulagement pour tous les démocrates de voir que la Cour constitutionnelle turque n'a pas cherché à s'opposer au choix démocratique du peuple turc », a déclaré le Secrétaire général du Conseil de l'Europe, Terry Davis, ajoutant que toutes les institutions et tous les citoyens ont leur rôle à jouer dans une démocratie. Le respect des droits et de l'opinion de chacun est un préalable indispensable à la stabilité et au développement démocratique.
