Congress President: Clashes in Turkey gravely affect local and regional democracy

Strasbourg, 07.10.2008 – “The recent military clashes in south-east Turkey is a cause for serious concern. Beyond the human toll, they gravely affect the situation of local and regional democracy and hinder regional development. I condemn the terrorist attacks which triggered the clashes, much as any terrorist act,” Yavuz Mildon, President of the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe, stated today.

On behalf of the Congress, he conveyed his condolences to the families of the Turkish soldiers who lost their lives.
