300 young leaders celebrate global youth work in Mollina

Date: 13-20 September 2009

Location: Mollina (Spain)

Organised by the North-South Centre of the Council of Europe in collaboration with the Spanish Government, the European Youth Forum, the Spanish Youth Council and other international youth organisations.

Description: Around 300 leaders of youth organisations from 84 countries will be present at the 10th edition of the University on Youth and Development in Mollina (Spain).

Globalisation, intercultural dialogue and climatic changes are the main topics to be discussed.

Additional information: Since 2000, the University on Youth and Development takes place once a year, bringing together representatives from youth organisations and youth movements from all over the world to discuss, train and be trained as well as to take political action around the main issues in the global agenda.

The University will open on Sunday, 13 September, in the presence of Denis Huber, Executive Director of the North-South Centre of the Council of Europe and representatives of the Spanish Government.

The event is taking place within the framework of the 20th Anniversary of the North-South Centre (2009- 2010).
